Who killed Santa Claus?"

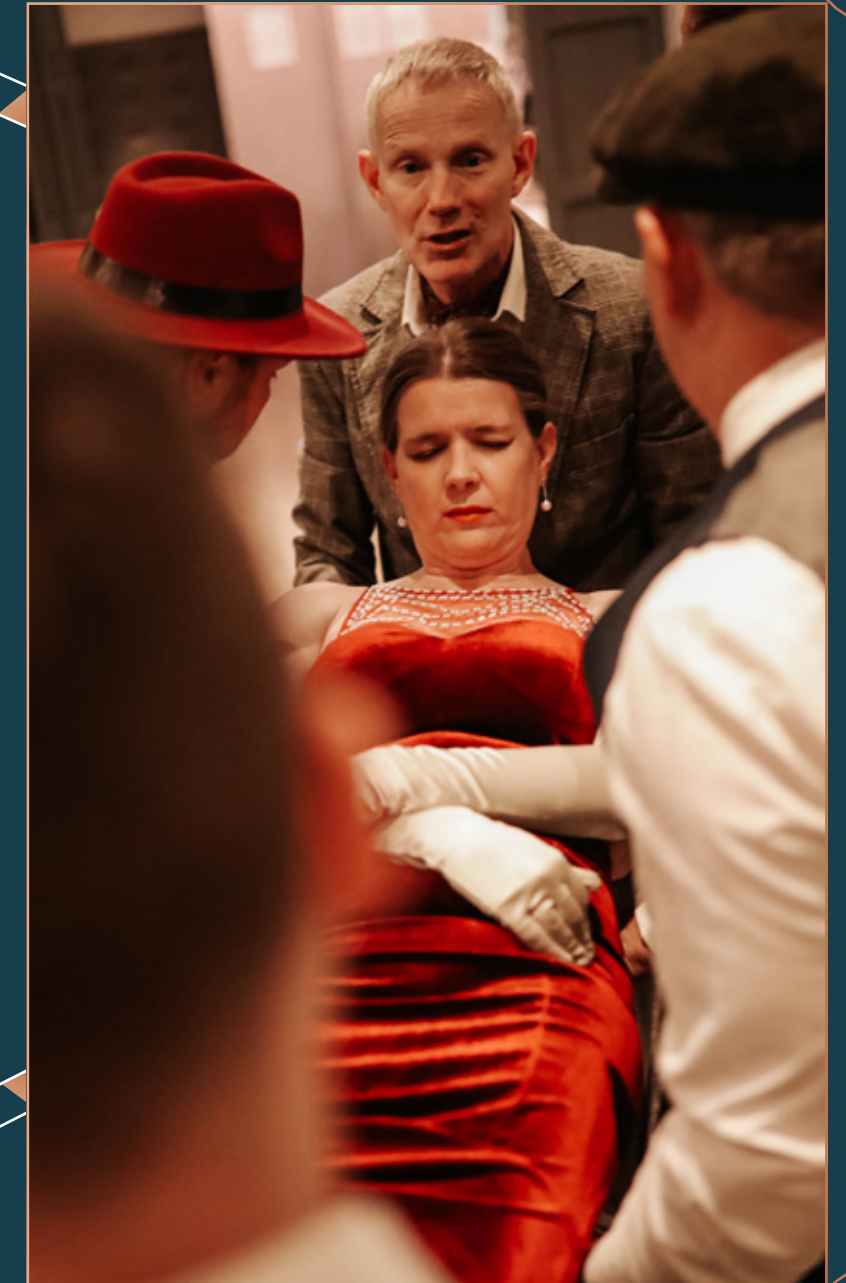

The Story So Far...

The year is 1937. Swansong Pictures are halfway through filming 'Who Killed Santa Claus?' They have been down to Somerset to film the outdoor scenes and are now in the process of adding the interior shots. Unfortunately, some of the action sequences have not come out at all well and so will need to be re-enacted tonight.

The Actors are all desperate to make quite sure that this film succeeds, as none of them were paid on the last film. When Lewis Long the Critic who slated their last production in his column, turns up, it throws the whole Company into a state of high tension and panic.

To make matters even worse, there is discontent amongst certain members of the Company, who feel that they are not getting the parts that they deserve.

Tonight however, will be their lucky night. For they will all get just what they deserve!

CHARITY

This holiday season, we are embracing a more sustainable approach by going "crackerless." Instead of traditional Christmas crackers, which an alarming 40 million end up in landfill each year, we have decided to make a meaningful donation on your behalf to a sustainable charity instead.

In the spirit of giving back and spreading joy, we kindly invite you to join us in supporting two important causes.

Firstly, we encourage you to consider making a donation to Help the Homeless, as every contribution can make a significant difference in improving the lives of those less fortunate during this season of giving. Secondly, we kindly request that you bring non-perishable food items to donate to the local food bank. Your thoughtful contribution will help ensure that those in need have access to nourishing meals during this time.

We will also be hosting a raffle each Christmas Party night where all ticket donations will go towards our company Charity, Props. Props have a vision which is of a future where everyone who has a disability can do purposeful and rewarding work and contribute to their community.

To make this a reality, props provide the skills, support and work opportunities that are currently not accessible for young people and adults who have learning disabilities.

Together, let us make a positive impact and embrace the true spirit of the season by extending our generosity to those who need it most. Thank you for your support and for joining us in these meaningful initiatives.
