Three Cheers For Christmas!

The Story so far

Christmas 1937 Everyone looked forward to the Annual Snowflake Ball at Lodge House, even in these troubled times.

When viewed from the end of the drive, Lodge House was a blaze of light and warmth against the stark whiteness of the deep snow that lay all in every direction as far as the eye could see.

When viewed from halfway along the drive, Lodge House was an oasis in the winter's night, an oasis known for singing and dancing and Christmas cheer.

There is no finer and friendlier place to be on this cold winter's night when viewed outside the enormous front door.

But when viewed from inside the heart of one person who stood amongst the merry throng who had gathered at Lodge House, this was to be a place of dark thoughts, of revenge, and Murder.

Sometimes things are not what they appear.
